

MARYLAND ARCHAEOLOGY MONTH LECTURE

Thursday, April 19 7:00 p.m. Visitor Center Auditorium

This symposium celebrates 50 years of archaeology conducted at Historic St. Mary's City (HSMC).

Presentations will include (in no particular order):

"Recent Research and Future Plans at the Leonard Calvert House Site,"
by Travis G. Parno

"A Retrospective Look At The Material Culture Of The Leonard Calvert Site," by Silas D. Hurry and Donald L. Winter

"Exploring 'Clocker's Acre': The Architecture of a Colonial Period Building," by Ruth M. Mitchell

"From Bore to Bowl: An Analysis of White Clay Tobacco Pipes from the Anne Arundel Hall Replacement Project," by Jessica E. Edwards, Erin N. Crawford

Lectures are free and open to the public.

www.HSMCdigsHistory.org 240-895-4990 info@digsHistory.org

18751 Hogaboom Lane, St. Mary's City, MD 20686

